

Programme Friday, 11 September 2026

|               |                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                         |
|---------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 08.00 - 08.45 | Registration (3rd floor)                                                                                            |                                                                                                                         |
|               | Common Lectures Beginners and Advanced (Main Hall - 3rd floor)                                               |                                                                                                                         |
| 08.45 - 08.55 | Welcome Severin Lächli & Nisith Sheth                                                                        |                                                                                                                         |
| 08.55 - 09.15 | ESMS position on indications for Micrographic Surgery Severin Lächli                                         |                                                                                                                         |
| 09.15 - 09.30 | Different techniques in Micrographic Surgery Matthias Möhrle                                                 |                                                                                                                         |
| 09.30 - 09.50 | Histopathology 1: Stains, histology BCC/SCC, horizontal/vertical sections, pitfallsJivko Kamarachev      |                                                                                                                         |
| 09.50 - 10.10 | Histopathology 2: challenges in frozen sections and interpretation discrepanciesÁngel Santos-Briz Terrón |                                                                                                                         |
| 10.10 - 10.30 | Documentation Yossi Alcalay                                                                                  |                                                                                                                         |
| 10.30 - 10.50 | Coffee break & exhibition (3rd floor)                                                                               |                                                                                                                         |
|               | Lectures BeginnerRoom 201 (2nd floor)                                                                    | Lectures AdvancedMain Hall (3rd floor)                                                                       |
| 10.50 - 11.10 | Mohs techniqueSimone van de Geer                                                                         | Taking layers: Mohs beyond the 1st stageJohn Paoli                                                           |
| 11.10 - 11.30 | Organising a Mohs service, equipmentJudith Ostertag                                                      | Mohs surgery for SCCKesh Anand                                                                               |
| 11.30 - 11.50 | Laboratory &amp; Cryostat techniqueGuy Orchard                                                           | Mohs for tumors other than keratinocyte carcinomaBrent Moody                                                 |
| 11.50 - 12.10 | Tissue processing, cutting and stainingPieter du Plessis                                                 | Why details matter in Mohs surgery, training the next generation, and leading our surgical teamsJerry Brewer |
| 12.10 - 13.30 | Lunch break, exhibition and New Technology workshops (3rd floor)                                                    |                                                                                                                         |
|               | New Technology workshops (Main hall - 3rd floor)                                                             |                                                                                                                         |
| 12.30 - 12.45 | Industry Symposium A                                                                                                |                                                                                                                         |
| 12.50 - 13.05 | Industry Symposium B                                                                                                |                                                                                                                         |

Programme Friday, 11 September 2026

|                                                                                               | Lectures BeginnerRoom 201 (2nd floor)                                                                                         | Lectures AdvancedMain Hall (3rd floor)                                                                                                  |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 13.30 - 13.50                                                                                 | Basic principles of reconstructionMichael Mühlstädt                                                                    | Locally advanced BCCAllison Vidimos                                                                                              |
| 13.50 - 14.10                                                                                 | Advice for New-to-Practice Mohs SurgeonsMichael Kunz                                                                   | Artificial Intelligence in Micrographic surgeryDaniela Hartmann                                                                  |
| 14.10 - 14.30                                                                                 | Local anaesthesia techniqueGöran Van Rooijen                                                                           | Reconstructions that involve cartilage transplantLuis Ríos-Buceta                                                                |
| 14.30 - 14.50                                                                                 | Pearls and Pitfalls for Local Flaps: Principles of Design and ExecutionAlly-Khan Somani                                | Ectropium repairRicardo Vieira                                                                                                   |
| 14.50 - 15.15                                                                                 | Coffee break & exhibition (3rd floor)                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                             |
| 15.15 - 16:50                                                                                 | Workshop Beginners                                                                                                         | Workshop Advanced                                                                                                                    |
| 4 groups in total - 2 beginners & 2 advanced - will rotate between the workshops (see page 9) | Workshop A: Reconstruction upper faceJoseph Alcalay, Michael Kunz and Göran van RooijenRoom 204 (2nd floor) | Workshop C: Upper face and noseAlly-Khan Somani, Ricardo Vieira and Luis Ríos-BucetaMain Hall (3rd floor)             |
|                                                                                               | Workshop B: Reconstruction noseEmma Craythone, Michael Mühlstädt and Daniela HartmannRoom 205 (2nd floor)   | Workshop D: Complex and multi-unit reconstructionsAshley Wysong, Stan Tolkachjov and Felipe CerciRoom 201 (2nd floor) |
| 16.50 - 17.00                                                                                 | Short break                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                             |
|                                                                                               | Common Lectures Beginners and Advanced Main Hall (3rd floor)                                                               |                                                                                                                                             |
| 17.00 - 17.30                                                                                 | Tumor Board Allison Vidimos & Todd Stultz                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                             |
| 17.30 - 18.00                                                                                 | Morbidity and Mortality in Derm Surgery Jerry Brewer                                                                       |                                                                                                                                             |
| 19.00 - 23.00                                                                                 | Course dinner at Refinery Bankside (110 Southwark St, London SE1 9AN)                                                      |                                                                                                                                             |

Programme Saturday, 12 September 2026

|                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                          |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 08.30 - 09.00                                                                                   | Registration & Preparation for workshop rotations (3rd floor)                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                          |
| 6 groups in total - 3 beginners & 3 advanced - will rotate between the 6 workshops (see page 9) | Workshops Beginners                                                                                                        | Workshops Advanced                                                                                                                                |
| 9.00 - 9.45                                                                                     | Workshop E: Reconstruction lower faceJack Mann, Aaron Tan &amp; John PaoliRoom 202 (2nd floor)              | Workshop H: Reconstruction lower faceAshley Wysong, Stan Tolkachjov, Olivier CogrelRoom 201 (2nd floor)                            |
| 9.45 - 10.00                                                                                    | 15 min. Coffee break between workshop shifts (2nd floor)                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                          |
| 10.00 - 10.45                                                                                   | Workshop F: Pathology BCCSimone Van der Geer, Ángel Santos Briz Terrón, Matthias MöhrleRoom 203 (2nd floor) | Workshop I: Pathology advanced: SCC and other tumorsJivko Kamarachev, Pieter du Plessis &amp; Sharanpal JeetleRoom 205 (2nd floor) |
| 10.45 - 11.15                                                                                   | 30 min. Coffee break between workshop shifts (2nd floor)                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                          |
| 11.15 - 12.00                                                                                   | Workshop G: CryostatGuy Orchard, Mohammad Shams and staffAt Guys Cancer Clinic                              | Workshop J: Reconstruction ear and eyelidsNisith Sheth, Aleksandar Krunic &amp; Saqib BashirRoom 204 (2nd floor)                   |
| 12.00 - 13.10                                                                                   | Lunch break and exhibition (3rd floor)                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                          |
|                                                                                                 | Common Lectures Beginners and Advanced Main Hall (3rd floor)                                                               |                                                                                                                                                          |
| 13.10 - 13.30                                                                                   | Sponsored lecture                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                          |
| 13.30 - 13.50                                                                                   | Melonoma , Stan Tolkachjov                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                          |
| 13.50 - 14.10                                                                                   | Mohs for the nail unit , Olivier Cogrel                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                          |
| 14.10 - 14.25                                                                                   | Geriatric , Gertruud Krekels                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                          |
| 14.25 - 14.45                                                                                   | Afternoon coffee break (3rd floor)                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                          |
| 14.45 - 15.05                                                                                   | Managing complications in Mohs surgery Krissy Dim-Jamora                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                          |
| 15.05 - 15.25                                                                                   | Laser Scar Revision: How to restore Contour Saqib Bashir                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                          |
| 15.25 - 15.45                                                                                   | What's new in Micrographic Surgery Ashley Wysong                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                          |
| 15.45 - 16.00                                                                                   | Mohs surgery qualifications: ESMS requirements/certification Severin Lächli                                                |                                                                                                                                                          |
| 16.00 - 16.15                                                                                   | Closing remarks Severin Lächli                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                          |